

CYBER STALKING AND COMMERCIAL SEXUAL EXPLOITATION OF CHILDREN

Tuesday, August 25, 2009 from 8:30am-4pm
Bicentennial Park Auditorium
201 N. Bluff Street, Joliet

For Law Enforcement & Human Services Professionals

Presenter:

Hale Guyer

Law Enforcement Digital Investigator-Instructor

Topics Include: Recent additions /changes to Illinois Cyber Stalking Law, examples of techniques used to harass and stalk victims using technology, Caller ID, Text Messaging, and email spoofing techniques, demonstration of spy cameras, keyloggers and other electronic devices.

Law Enforcement Digital Investigator-Instructor Hale Guyer is a retired law enforcement officer who presently teaches the investigation of high technology crimes. With over 32 years of experience, he has provided training and appeared at conferences for law enforcement and the general public throughout the United States, and has multiple appearances in the U.K. Investigator Guyer is a licensed Private Detective in the state of Illinois, Adjunct faculty/instructor for the Suburban Law Enforcement Academy, College of DuPage, a member of the National Chiefs of Police, International Police Association, High Technology Crime Investigation Assn, International Law Enforcement Educators & Trainers Assn, National Association of Investigative Specialists, a consultant for the Office of Victims of Crimes, and a certified Instructor through the Illinois Law Enforcement Training & Standards Board.

Presenter:

Rachel Durchslag

Executive Director, Chicago Alliance Against Sexual Exploitation

Topics Include: Identifying child victims of commercial sexual exploitation, their types of physical and psychological issues, the role that “demand” plays in the recruitment and retentions of exploited youth and intervention recommendations.

Rachel Durchslag has been working in the social justice community for the past eight years.

Graduating Skidmore College in 2000 with a double major in women’s studies and social work,

Rachel moved to Chicago where she worked for Personal Political Action Committee, the Day Care Action Council of Illinois, and the Chicago Chapter of the National Organization for Women. In 2005 Rachel earned her masters degree in Social Service Administration from the University of Chicago. In June of 2006 Rachel founded the Chicago Alliance Against Sexual Exploitation, an organization that works to eliminate sexual exploitation through litigation and advocacy, organizing and policy reform, and prevention and resource development. Rachel was recently awarded the YWCA's Promise Leadership award, the Soroptimist's Woman Making a Difference award, and the Young Nonprofit Professional Network's Young Nonprofit Professional of the Year award.

To Register for this FREE Training call:

☛ Law Enforcement 815-439-6915

☛ Social Service Providers contact

jessica@socialworkprn.com

Continental breakfast is provided by Tri-River Police Training Association.

Lunch is on your own.

Training co-sponsored by: the 12th Judicial Circuit Family Violence Coordinating Council (F.V.C.C.), the Office of Will County State's Attorney James Glasgow, Social Work PRN, Tri-River Police Training Association and Billie Limacher Bicentennial Park

5 FREE CEU's are available for Social Workers

Training Schedule

8:30 a.m. - 9:00 a.m. - Registration and Continental Breakfast

9:00 a.m. - 9:30 a.m. Welcome, Introductions and Opening Remarks

F.V.C.C. Coordinator Tony Ray

Social Work PRN

JAMES W. GLASGOW, Will County State's Attorney

9:30 to 11:30 a.m. - Training by Investigator Guyer

11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. - Lunch (on your own)

1:00 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. - Training by Executive Director Rachel Durchslag

3:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. - CEU's and Certificates of attendance are distributed

